

I am writing in regard to the Bank Associations attempts to override the authority of the State of Wisconsin's No Call List limiting Telemarketers. Please leave Wisconsin's No Call Law alone! If I want to hear from my bankers about financial deals, rates, etc. I can and will give them permission to do so. Otherwise they can inform me through the mail, without disrupting my and my family's lives!